The ROLAN FAMILY NEWSLETTER

ISSUE #2 AUGUST 1993

From the Editor's Desk

The first NewsLetter was very, very difficult to write. The second one was mainly written by you guys and gals that called, talked and wrote to me. After the first one, I was wondering what to put into the second; or even if there would be a second one. The favorable response was over whelming. Some people sent in money, some people sent in addresses, some people sent in original photos, some people sent in genealogy information. I am grateful for all of it. I am including some of it in this NewsLetter. Keep sending it and I will make sure it gets into the NewsLetter; but make sure you tell me if you do not want it published or returned.

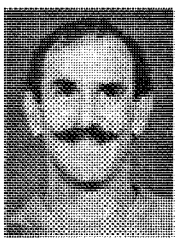

By the end of August, Keith Barnett; Minnie Lee Burnes' Great Grandson will be finishing his studies to become a police officer. We will all feel much more secure knowing the CampGrounds will have it's own personal security force "close at home". Congratulations to the Graduate.

We are still looking for a person to mow the CampGrounds for the Reunion. Please be prepared to cut weeds if we don't find a volunteer.

Corrections: Jerry & Janet Whitworth's twin girls are Brendie & Brandie instead of Brendy and Brandy.

40th ROLAN REUNION

Next year will be the 40th anniversary of the Reunion being held at the Campgrounds. Let's make this reunion an extra special one. Let me have your ideas about how to make this happening a very special event. As you can see from the photos in the NewsLetter, I am getting lots. I have thought about making a reproducible photo album with the photos that would be available for any who wants them. How about gathering around an air conditioner and telling stories of times past? Whatever, let me know.

Who knows these guys?

"ROLAN" THROUGH LIFE

By Naomi Van Noy

Our immigrant Scottish ROLAN ancestor is Richard, born April 1820, in Inverness, Scotland. This place of birth is given on the 1860 Jackson County, Texas census. However, the first VISIBLE track we've located that he left for us is the Tax Rolls of Liberty County and the 1850 census of Liberty County, where he is enumerated in the household of Reuben BARROW, a stockraiser from Louisiana. Richard is shown as 28 years old, a carpenter, place of birth Sweden, but is assumed the person giving the information was NOT Richard himself. This was sometimes the case with census information, another person spoke up with what they thought was correct about the absent person, especially if he was a single man, as Richard was. If the fellow was not at home, that census taker was NOT going to ride his horse or mule back down that muddy road to the Barrows' house just to get Richard's information. Close neighbors on this census are shown as being from Scotland, Ireland, France, their occupations: ship's carpenters, blacksmiths, laborers.

The Rolan name has many variations in spelling, frequently will be found spelled as many as three ways on the same document.

He vanished from the Liberty County Tax Rolls in 1855, I did not locate him on another tax roll until 1858, when he shows up in Jackson County. Where was he for those 3 years? What county? continued on page 2

By 1862, he married in Burleson County. He is in Milam County Tax Rolls in 1865, paying his poll tax. 1866: R. ROLAND now pays taxes on land, original grantee was J. B. HARRIS, in Milam County. The HARRIS name plays a part later in this family.

We don't know how Matilda JONES and Richard ROLAN met, suspect it was through the JONES brothers, but they were married in Burleson County on August 5, 1862. Opinion is that his service in the Civil War took him to that area, a idea not proved with certainty. Matilda was already living in Milam County, at San Anders, with her mother and family in 1860, per census records. The 1900 and 1910 Milam County census records show Matilda as the mother of 5 children, 3 of whom were living. We know those 3 were Andrew J., Saphronia, and Richard, Jr."Bud". A daughter, Josephene, only 10 days old, born in July 1866, died in August, is buried in the old MILLER CEMETERY located inside Alcoa property. One of "Bud" and Georgia Ann's babies is buried here, as is Elvin Augustus, A. J. and Ellen's child (Alvin's twin.) So we know the names of those 4, does anyone in the family have any knowledge of the other child's name and burial place? We took pictures of the graves in the Miller Cemetery. The census records consistently show Matilda as married only once, so believe that all 5 of her children were from her marriage to Richard Rolan.

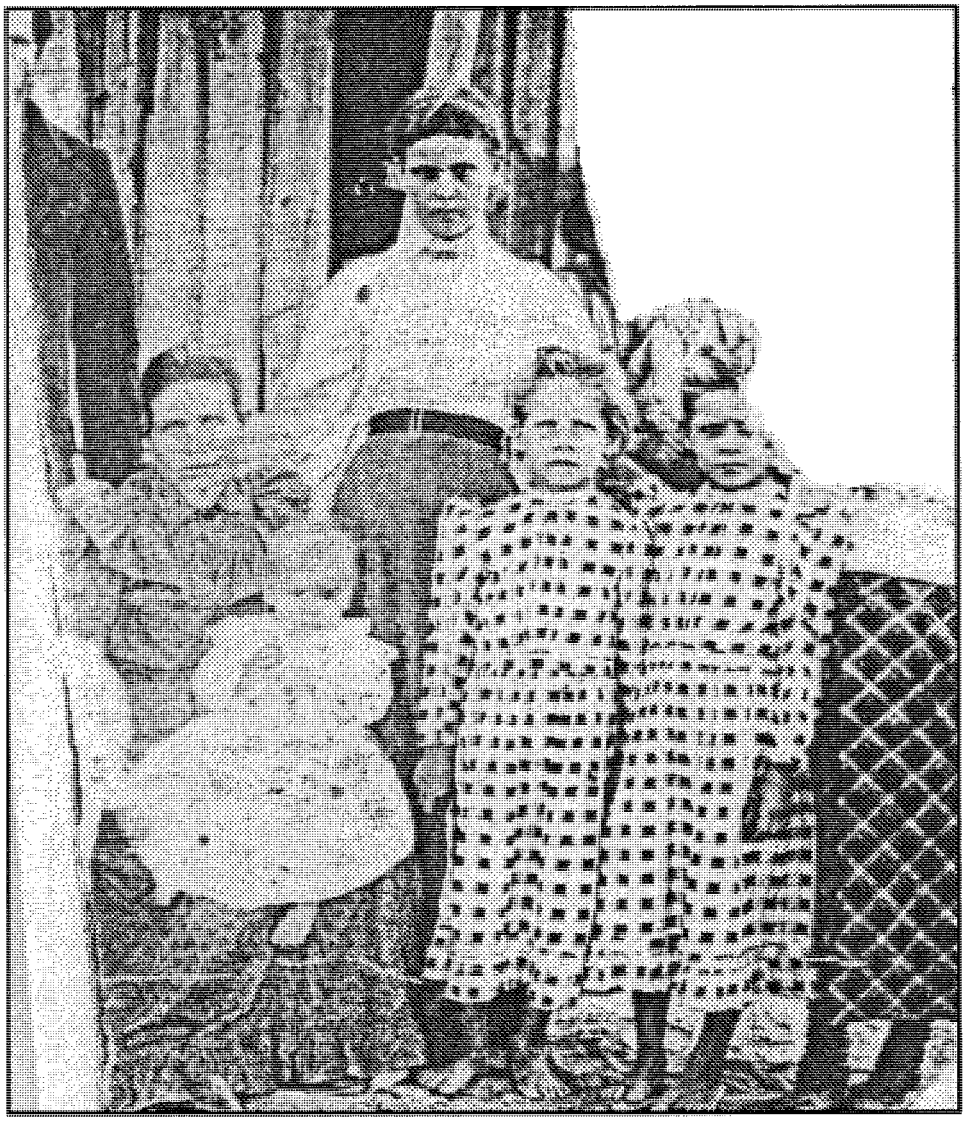

MOST VALUABLE SOURCE: VOTER'S REGISTERS, 1867 & 1869

These are housed in Austin at the State Library, Genealogy Collection. These are considered important by genealogists in that the man registering was more likely to have given this information HIMSELF, unlike some other records.

MILAM COUNTY, Roll 5: # 500: Richard ROLAN, dated July 13, 1867: In voting precinct 4, states he had been in the State of Texas for 24 years, Milam County for 6 years, in precinct 4 for 6 years. He was born in Scotland, he was NATURALIZED in the District Court in Galveston in 1844. These stated facts put him in Texas by 1844, not 1845, as shown on census records which came LATER. It also puts him in Milam County by 1861.

MILITARY

One Pvt. R. ROLAN enlisted July 1861 in Captain John Bronaugh's Mounted Minute Men (Riflemen) from Jackson County, 24Th Brigade. I have found no further record to prove this to be our Richard but, it is very possible, as he was living in Jackson County on the 1860 census. It Is possible that he enlisted in Jackson County and went directly into Milam County during his service. Continued on page 4.

Play Weekend; Memorial Day

By Paul Rolan

I arrived Friday evening and met everyone. They were:

Charles and Ruth Parker
Lillie Pearl Parker's Son
Harry & Florene Sanderson
Lillie's Daughter
Gordon & Iris Tratham
Lillie's Daughter

They had arrived the day before. Plumbing anyone? Harry & Gordon had already found the 1" water line going from the cook shack to the restroom. They had tee'ed in near the tea serving table and were digging up the hill. My Friday evening was mainly filled with unloading my truck and building the AC stand for my tent air conditioner. Afterwards, I went up to the trailers to visit. We talked about family and activities for the next day ("Ya Understand"). I had forgotten what Alcoa looked like at night. They sure light up the sky.

Saturday:

Got up early and started working on the ditch. Harry came by with an offer of coffee. I took a break and walked up to the trailers for coffee. Talked more family. Still didn't know Iris or Gordon's name. Their names finally stuck 1/2 way through Sat. I went back digging the ditch. After I got hot, I took a break with a less strenuous task; painting the round stool tops under the shed. The whole time I was thinking what, when, where, my dad was doing when he made these stools. I went back to digging and was joined by H & G. I had almost gone off in the wrong direction ("It Doesn't Matter"). Then came the crossing of the roadway; solid clay. Pure HECK.

The last 35' was easy sailing with G & I digging in the sand. Ditch dug. Now glue and test for leaks. Make sure all the valve risers are next to a tree instead of laying on the ground (before you glue). Bury the pipe and conceal all that hard work. Job well done.

That evening I worked on the broken concrete water barrel. I started knocking off the plaster trying to save the 1958 logo. I hated breaking that old concrete. Looking at it close, I could see history in the weathered pores and stains. I remembered well when dad would lift me in by my arms to clean it out. Then after the Reunion, drop me in that ice cold water. I loved it.

Finished breaking the plaster off the wire frame. Left the remnants of the 1958 Logo next to the barrel. Don't know if they're useable. I plan to complete the rebuild by the Reunion in September. Went to visit the neighbors to ensure I had all of their kids listed on the Mailing List. Didn't have any of any of Flo's or Charles' (Beau). Took notes on all of these.

Sunday:

Went to visit the Miller cemetery. Alcoa's gate was exactly where Audry said it was. I waited 30 minutes for an escort. Alcoa has a ton of land and some BIG machinery. One Dragline Scoop I saw was 125 yards. The escort didn't know of Miller so I took a chance, He said the south cemeteries and I said yes. We passed one and went to the Barber. He left. I took pictures. I went to the ??Wallace??; Heavy undergrowth. Took pictures. He said one was just before we crossed the beltline. I didn't go to that one. On the way back, I stopped by the one between Alcoa and the Campgrounds. Took pictures. I don't think I found the Miller Cemetery; this time.

For dinner; the neighbors invited me for grilled burgers. Excellent. Beau offered an invite for me to use their mobile home's hot shower. It was great. As I was finishing, rain started. Beau & Ruth came inside. We talked about building a shower stall w/hot water. Also talked about the Reunion business meeting. I thought to have it before the meal; food preparers couldn't come. Just pick up the offering before the prayer, then eat, then have the business meeting? Bad idea. Hey, let's keep the same schedule as in the past; Lunch, Business meeting, pass the hat for donations. Good Idea.....

Trip To Mary's

There was a dual purpose for the trip to Houston this time. This weekend, Lisa's (my wife) cousin was getting married. The reception was in the Grand ballroom of the Raddison in Galleria. Needless to say, this was a swanky wedding and reception. But, that's another story. The second reason for going to Houston was to visit Mary and Ramon Rolan's home in search of a good mailing list. Mary had graciously agreed to allow me to use Ramon's computer in search of the Rolan Reunion Mailing List. Lisa had volunteered to keep our three kids while Myrtle Jones (Rolan) and I went to Mary's.

I knew Houston had grown since I left 10 years ago; but I didn't realize how much. It took 30 minutes to go from my mother's house in Spring Branch, to Myrtle's, just North of Hwy. 290. By the time we reached Mary's house in Kingwood, I thought we were nearing Dallas.

Mary greeted us and we talked about the past awhile. Mary then showed us into the bedroom office. My investigations revealed what I already knew, Ramon was an ace computer Hacker. There was a Database set up in a family tree structure. This database has over 980 names. This is what was used to make mailing lists. Ramon made programs to do all kinds of things with this file. I still don't know how to use some of them, but I'm learning.

Thank you Mary for allowing us into your home. Your invite provided an opportunity for me to carry out one of Ramon's ideas a Rolan NewsLetter.

OUR ROLAN/JONES ROOTS

In 1987, neither knowing the other was doing it, two great- great granddaughters of Richard and Matilda Jones Rolan began to record the history of their Rolan ancestors. It didn't take long to get back in contact after not seeing each other for a long period of time. Both native Texans, one now lived in Oklahoma, the other in Wyoming. Sharing the same desire to trace our ancestors made our "reunion" doubly exciting. Together we've covered a lot of good old Texas soil, visiting relatives, courthouses and libraries, searching for the records they left behind, and, of course, visiting the final resting places of those who have gone before us, some we knew and loved, some we only knew of from the stories passed on to us. Those we loved because we are a part of them.

These 2 Rolan/Jones descendants are Dawn Allison Hyde, daughter of Ruby Butterfield and Naomi McFerrin Van Noy, daughter of Ruth Butterfield.

We feel that the most meaningful way to honor our ancestors is by, first, being the kind of people that would reflect the values they tried to instill in us and secondly, to record the history of their lives, as accurately as possible, so that their names may live in the hearts of generations to come. This is what we set out to do. With the help of many of our families in sharing their memories, letting us use their old photographs for copies, providing us with their immediate family group information, sharing the stories that made finding some of the legal records possible, letting us "camp" at their homes while away from our own homes as we researched "family", we have made a lot of progress. We also found a couple of family members who have worked on some of the records. This is truly a "labor of love" and is what the Rolan Reunion means to us, to come together as a group and remember our "roots", which are shared by all of us.

While we have recorded hundreds of documents showing the paths our families took, this is an on-going project, hopefully, one that will be taken up by others in the younger families. It does not stop with Richard, but will continue back in time for as many generations as possible to document. In the very near future, we hope to document Richard's birth in Scotland and learn his parent's names and those of his brothers and sisters. Scottish records searching will be harder because Civil Registration did not begin in Scotland until 1855. And as we search for his family records, we are conducting the same for his wife, Matilda Jones's family members, generation by generation.

The Scots, as a rule, were a "clannish" lot, but as the word means "kin", that's all right. That means we tend to stick together. We might fight among ourselves but no person outside the family had better try to fight us!! Kin also means sharing with family, and this we are trying to do by putting our research in view of anyone who might have an interest in knowing our family history.

We are anxious to learn the true birthplace of Richard, whether he descended from Highlanders or Lowlanders. Inverness is considered Highlands. The Highlanders descended from the Celts and tended to be influenced more by emotion than reason, but the Lowlanders, descended from the Saxons, were logical souls who leaned more to agriculture, etc. The origin would basically tell us to what Church the Rolan families belonged in Scotland, also. Suspect the name was originally spelled ROWLAND in the old country.

Have you ever listened to Scottish music, bagpipes in particular, and KNOW that this music is a part of your heritage, you are part Scot??? That's in our blood through Richard Rolan and possibly even through Matilda's family. Researching her family even farther back than we have already will tell us more of her origin. Of course, most of us have Scottish blood through a number of ancestors besides ROLAN.

We are hoping that those of you who have information that can extend our "roots" will share with those of us who are interested in genealogy. We know there are others who are recording the family, also, and we would like to know who you are and if you are willing to share your knowledge with us. You may not think that your "bits and pieces" could contribute to the structure of the family history, but those "bits and pieces" are the heart and soul of the giant jigsaw puzzle that is our FAMILY, our ancestors. Put your pieces of the puzzle in place, share family with family.

QUESTIONS

1. Does anyone know exactly where Richard Rolan is buried?
2. Does anyone know what church the Rolan's attended? (Any of the Rolan families.)
3. Does anyone know anything about the existence of the wedding dress of Matilda Jones Rolan?
4. Is there, or was there ever, a family Bible belonging to either Richard and Matilda or A. J. and Ellen, Richard Jr. and Georgia Ann Allison Rolan?
5. Do any pictures exist of Richard and/or Matilda? Any of "Bud's" family?

The lists of added and corrected address response from everyone was great. As you can see, in this NewsLetter the mailing listing is in genealogy order (with the 12 siblings of A. J. New Addresses

As I promised, the person sending in the most corrected or new addresses would have their name in the NewsLetter. I had lots of responses, but the most came from Edna Butterfield Voldan with a close second and third received from Dawn Hyde and Myrtle Jones. The NewsLetter outreach has been improved and corrected by their inputs. Thanks and keep it coming.

Land For Sale

There is acreage for sale that the Spears family (Aunt Safronia Spears; Andrew J. Rolan's Sister) owns next to the CampGrounds in the survey next to the Alcoa fence. The Spears want to sell but Alcoa does not want to buy. Alcoa suggests we include the acreage in with our CampGround's acreage but the Spears Family may not want to do that. They may want to sell now. Any interested parties, contact Ed Barnett (713-548-7042).
