The Rolan Family NewsLetter

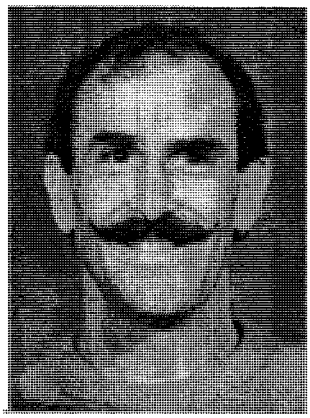

May 1994 Issue No. 4

From the Editor

Donations have been received to pay for another Rolan NewsLetter mailing (see Budget on inside page). Also I want to thank the people that have let me borrow their irreplaceable photos. I want to assure you all, the utmost care is used when handled. These photos are electronically digitized for future NewsLetter issues. Some of the latest photos I received are in this NewsLetter.

Speaking of photos, I owe a gigantic apology to the family and in particularly to the Parker and Burnes clans. In the last Rolan NewsLetter ; the December issue, the title under the photo of Sam & Charlie Burnes read Sam & Charlie Parker oops!!! I knew better. In the Minnie Lee Burnes story page 1, Andrew and Ellen had 14 children; not 12. Twelve lived to be adults; We also missed mentioning Jarome Kirby Rolan.

The Texas Revolution

By Dawn Allison Hyde

Researching the life of James Lee has been comparable to a jigsaw puzzle with bits and pieces of information to be pieced together, until they make a coherent picture. Sometimes a fact seems to fit until other bits and pieces have been unearthed, which contradict the first, and throw the picture out of kilter.

There is so little information available about the early settlers in the Mexican state of Coahuila y' Texas, and on up through the Republic of Texas. To find one individual, it is necessary to study the history of the area, and many of the people there, to find patterns, motivation, etc.

The only information we had to begin with was our Grandpa Butterfield's story about the family. Grandpa said that his grandpa, James Lee, who was a 2nd cousin to Robert E. Lee, was from Corn Hill, Texas, and went to Courtney in Washington Co., and was living there at his death. James Lee's wife was Ellen Decker, who according to Grandpa, had been raised by "Grandma Atkins" on an old Spanish land grant after being abandoned. Ellen and her sister Mary were left behind on a stream bank by their father, who was running from the law. As with most family stories, there are many inaccuracies, but with a thread of truth proving clues.

In the search for James Lee, other clues have been found in census records, maps, land deals, court records, military records, etc. There is still so much to be learned. However, the following in an effort to meld the facts found so far, into a picture of James Lee, Texian.

JAMES LEE, TEXIAN

Letters to the Editor

February 3, 1994

Last August I was able to read a copy of the Rolan NewsLetter, and while some things puzzled me, I was ever so glad to learn that at least someone in the younger generation is interested enough to keep the Rolan family still going so that we all may know our family roots.

I myself am a descendant of Issac Newton Rolan, being his granddaughter, and daughter of Ellen Virginia Rolan Welch (his daughter). I have enclosed my attempt to list the descendants of Issac N. Rolan, of my mother's family.

We all live in or around Ft. Worth. I would be willing to send in correspondence, notices, etc. for my family; if anyone would be interested in the information.

PS. Just in case no one sent in the answer about the church the Rolan's attended... From the information I have been able to obtain, most of them attended the Church of Christ. However, I remember my Grandpa and Grandma Rolan attending the Assembly of God church in their hometown of Lometa Tx.

Sincerely yours,
Laura Inez Self

EDITOR: Thank you for your generous contribution to expand our Rolan NewsLetter mailing list. Your input provided 8 more Cousins names that will receive a Rolan NewsLetter, not to mention the kids and grandkids names you provided.

Every attempt at compiling our Rolan NewsLetter surfaces more and more things I didn't know about our family. As you mentioned, some pieces of information puzzle me or even go unnoticed. But if these stories remain unpublished, very few will even know they existed. The family can share the stories, add to the stories, get to the facts of the stories; (continued on page 6)

The CampGrounds

The CampGrounds at Rockdale no longer have a resident staying there to look over things. When the last resident moved out Keith Barnett, Alcoa put up "No Trespassing" signs that said this is Alcoa property and a locked gate. I found out about this last November, but didn't have enough first hand information to knowledgeably put it in the last Rolan NewsLetter. Now I do.

To the best of my knowledge, the family still owns about 2-3 acres of land. Alcoa's fence signs are only partly true. They own land behind the fence, but the family does too. In other words, the exact land of the family's is not decided. Wayne Tolson still owns some (continued on next page).

GENEALOGY/ MAILING LIST

The Rolan NewsLetter Mailing list is a subset of about 900 genealogically ordered names. The Mailing list only includes descendants over 18, that have a complete address (normally one NewsLetter per address to minimize cost) and have not had their previous Rolan NewsLetter returned (bad address). If the descendant has died, an effort is made to keep the spouse informed with a Rolan NewsLetter.

The following Rolan NewsLetters were returned. Does anyone know their new address or any info on them?

Box 32

I was very pleased with just these few returns, but I need more names and correct addresses. From looking over the past Rolan NewsLetter returns, about 25 names have been dropped due to bad addresses. Take a moment to review the list, mark it up send it to me. The Family would appreciate it.

property along with the Sam Parker clan. In mid March, Wayne took a visit to CampGrounds and also paid a visit to the Alcoa land representative.

The first place to see was the CampGrounds. He saw the signs, the gate and the lock. He promptly removed the lock and proceeded into the CampGrounds to check out the condition. Nothing had changed, except for the weeds. With a sense of feeling that something had just been unjustly taken away from you, he went to see the Alcoa land representative ready for a fight. What he found was very unexpected.

Wayne met with the rep. Rickey Gaines @ 512-4468748 which explained that the reason Alcoa put up the signs and gate was to prevent vandalism and was not meant to keep the family members out. They repeated (as they have in the past) that we could have the Rolan Family Reunion there for as long as we wanted. They seemed so sincere that Wayne forgot about the removed gate lock he had in his pocket that he was going to give Alcoa. It was decided to use a combination lock with a special combination to protect the property ,but also allow access. Call the following people for the combination: Wayne Tolson-713-460-5449, Paul Rolan- 512-280-3222, Vaughn Brune-512-898-2051

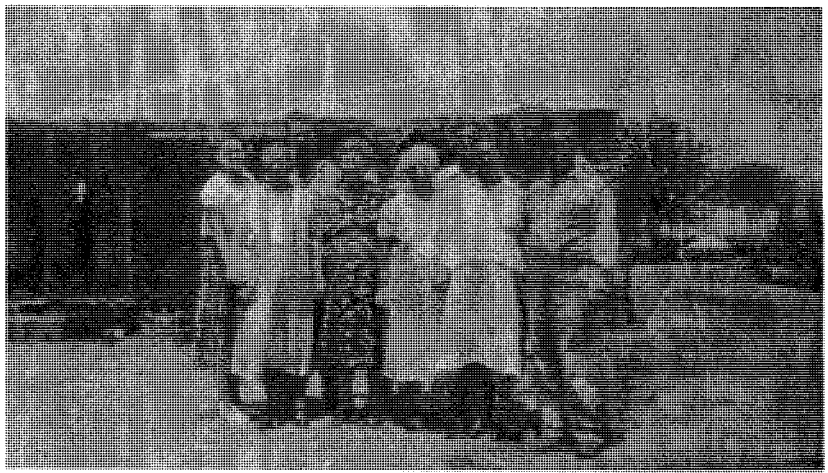

I am sorry to report that William (Billy) Henry Beard passed away January 12th. He will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all the loved ones.

Writers Wanted

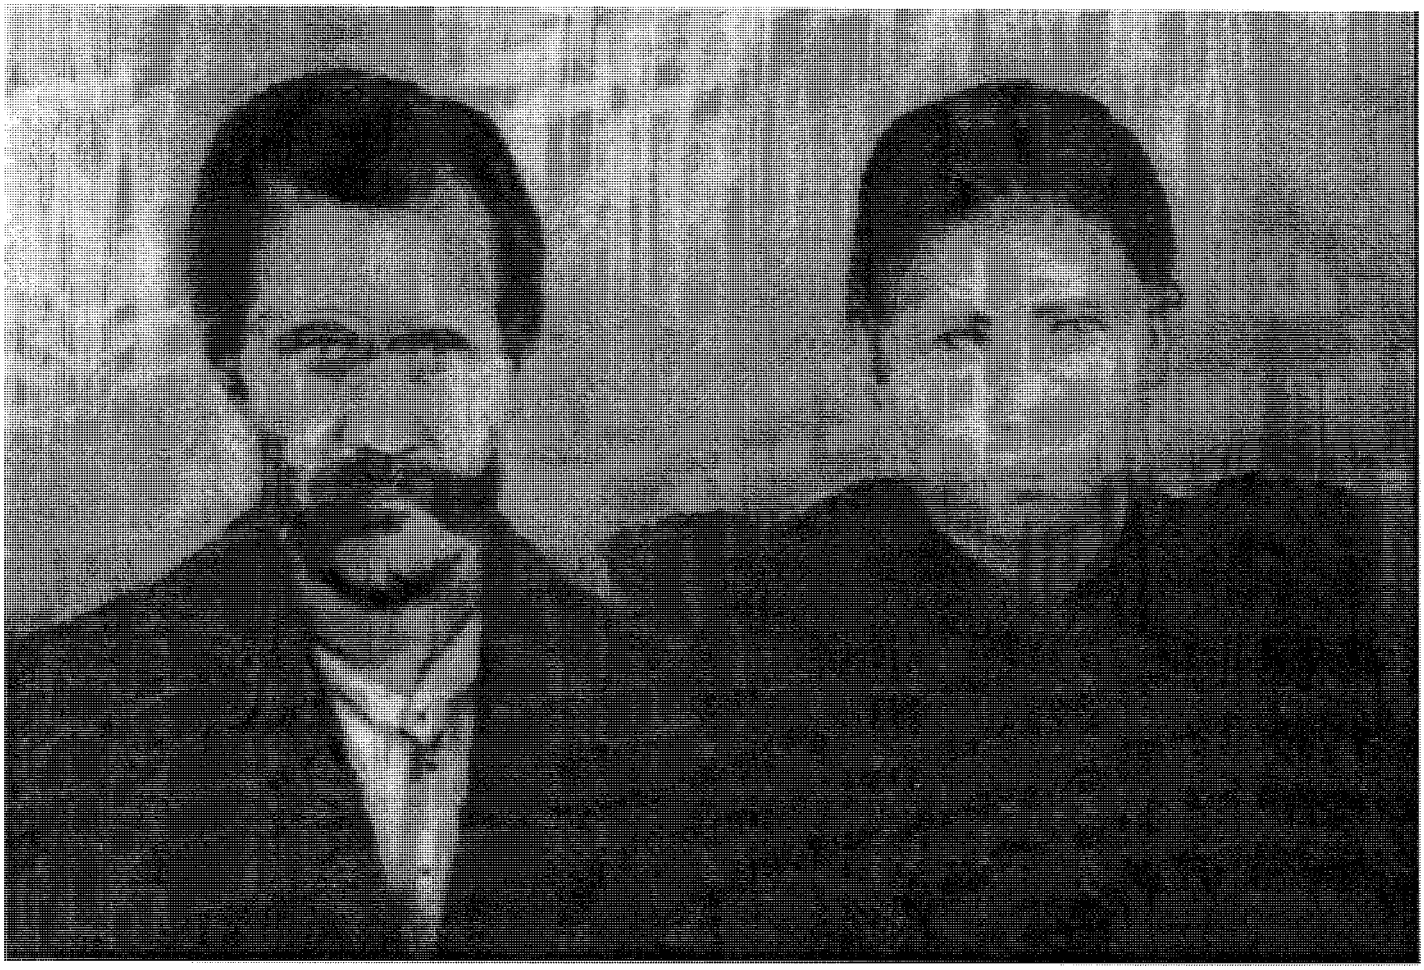

At the reunion last fall, the family representatives agreed to share their parent's or grandparent's stories by writing a short story about the personal memories of their limb of the family tree. This is a great way to share memories with the younger generations and carry on traditional values. Unfortunately, as this Rolan NewsLetter shows, I have no particular articles about the '12 Children'.

I have two more articles about our family heritage and my stories will be exhausted. Oh, I can still tell about growing up around 'Grandma & Poppee' (Nettie & Jim) but, you will probably get bored real fast.

I truly need your stories to keep the Rolan NewsLetter going. Send them to share with all no matter how right, incomplete, or unsubstantiated they are. I will use them in the Rolan NewsLetter.

Revolution

he swore that he had come to Texas in October 1831. According the census records he was about 24 years old, various records state he was from North Carolina, Kentucky, Louisiana, and Arkansas. James seems to have gotten into Texas just before the November deadline. The Mexican government had passed a law in April, 1831 barring further American immigration as of November 1831, because of the flood of American families coming into the Mexican territory. The records of Montgomery County show that many of the families, especially in the western half of the county, part of Austin's Colony, had come within a few months of October 1831. Among these was the family of William and Phoebe Atkins. William had a Spanish grant for a league and a labor of land, which was dated April 1831. William and Phoebe, who had come from South Carolina, were to be very important in the life of James Lee.

The first written record found so far of the many bits and pieces about James Lee is dated 15 May 1835 when he, along with Matthew Cartwright, William Atkins, and John Casemore were witness to a contract between Pierre Blanchet and H & S Rueg of Nacogdoches. The same day Cartwright, Atkins and Lee were also witnesses to a contract between Pierre Blanchet and B. B. Goodrich in which Goodrich was transferring to Blanchet part of Goodrich's land obtained as a colonist in Vehlin's Colony.

In June of 1835 James Lee signed a bond for $10,000 Mexican money to Pierre Blanchet. Blanchet was to clear out of the land office the quarter of a league of land James Lee could receive as a Colonist. In exchange for doing the legal work, Blanchet was to receive half of the quarter league of land. The contract was witnessed by William and Phoebe Atkins.

The next record found is the Muster Roll of the Texas Revolution which states that on 30 June, 1836, James Lee signed up for 3 months service. Along with 87 others from the east side of the Brazos River, Washington County, he signed up with enroller Jesse Grimes. The names of James Lee, William Atkins and Hiram Rossen were on adjacent lines.

A decisive battle for Texas independence had been won with the capture of Santa Anna at San Jacinto in April of 1836. However, word had been received that 10,000 Mexicans were again marching against Texas. On June 20, 1836 the Secretary of War, William A. Somervill, in a letter to Capt. William Logan, authorized him " to order every able bodied citizen within your municipality between the age of sixteen and fifty years to repair forwith to Headquarters armed and equipped as the law directs".

James Lee served in the First Regiment, First Brigade of the Montgomery County Militia, under Captain Zacheus Wilson. He had served two months of his enlistment when he was injured. On the 30th of August, 1836, John M. Long, M.D., Surgeon of the First Regiment, signed a discharge which stated, " I certify that James Lee has an affection of the head which renders him completely deaf and unfit for duty as a volunteer." This paper is in Texas State Archives Collection in Austin, Texas. A tradition has been handed down through his Pillow descendants that during a battle the soldier firing a cannon was killed, and James Lee, without any ear protection, started firing the cannon, and the noise and percussion caused him to be deaf. (He must have regained at least part of his hearing later because on 19 Dec. 1857 Appleton Gay, witness to a contract between Lee and Peter Willis stated that the contract was read to (continued on next page)

James Lee before he signed it. Since James always made his mark x by his signature, he probably could not read or write at all, and total deafness would have robbed him almost totally of the ability to communicate.)

On 6 March 1839 James sold his claim to 2 months and 1 day pay as Sergeant to Charles B. Stewart. This was witnessed by George M. Davis and W. W. Shepperd. The same day James signed a statement that he had not taken or retained "any arms, ammunition, or any other thing belonging to the Government." This statement was made on Sale Creek, Washington County, before George Galbraith, J. P.

No marriage license had been found for James, however, about this time, 1837, he married Ellen Decker, who, it is believed had been raised by William and Phoebe Atkins. There are different versions of Ellen's story in the family, however, the basic story was that Ellen and her sister Mary who were about 7 and 9, were abandoned on a river bank or a boat landing, when their father, Mr. Decker, was fleeing from the law. The girls were taken in by neighbors and did not hear from their family again. The Butterfield version is that the girls were "taken in by Grandma Atkins. She raised them. They lived near Corsicana, Texas, probably on an old Spanish Land Grant." William and Phoebe Atkins did indeed have a Spanish Land Grant although it was in Montgomery County. (James Lee had some land outside of Corsicana.) The census dates reflect that Ellen was born in 1818 or 1819, and Mary was born in 1822. If there were 7 and 9 years old, they were probably separated from their family about 1829. The Atkins had come to Texas in 1829, and Phoebe was, according to 1850 census, 37 years old in 1829, old enough to take them in and raise them.

The next record of James is a contract between James Lee and Hiriam Rossen on 7 Jan, 1838 when James sold 50 acres of his Headright on the San Jacinto River.

After the Republic of Texas was formed in 1836, any married man could receive the right to buy a league and a labor of land, which was 4,605 acres, or 26,000,000 square varas. On 2 Feb. 1838, James Lee received Headright Certificate # 141 from the Republic of Texas. He claimed to be a married man, and that he had arrived in Texas in 1831. This right to buy land was the subject of many deeds, contracts, and at least one law suit over the next several years. The land purchases were not located in one county, but in 8 smaller plats, in at least 3 counties. There were 50 acres in Montgomery County, 1 in Navarro County, and 2 in Stephens County patented under the name of James Lee.

The Republic of Texas paid it's soldiers in land, as well as money, and on 24 Oct. 1838, James Lee got a certificate for 320 acres. He sold this right to William Houston, who secured 320 acres in Calhoun County.

On 30 Sept. 1839, James, along with B. B. Goodrich, William Landrum, Hiriam Rossen and others, were listed as buyers at the estate sale of James Evans. Landrum and Rossen had both enlisted with James Lee in the 1836 Montgomery Co. militia.

1840 was the first year that the Montgomery Co. tax rolls reflect James Lee paying taxes, and that was poll tax. That year also brought the birth of daughter, Mary Ann. Two years later Louisa J. was born.

The land deals during this time were complicated, and difficult to follow. Dr. Charles B. Stewart, who had purchased Lee's claim to pay during the war, also figured prominently in these land transactions. In fact, in October of 1856, James Lee filed suit against Stewart over the unlocated balance of Lee's certificate # 141. 20 The 1233 acre tract in Navarro Co. had been patented in 1851. That left 19,037,000 square varas or 3,372 acres, which James Lee had the right to purchase out of the public lands of Texas. He had apparently sold the right to 1,000 acres to C. B. Stewart, and agreed to give Stewart another 756 acres if he would locate and pay all the expenses to patent the remaining 1,616 acres of his headright. This agreement was dated 28 July 1855.

On Jan 1857, C. B. Stewart filed an agreement to cancel the contract to locate and pay expenses on the 2,372 acres, but retained the right to the 1,000 acres. Stewart had 1 year from that date to locate land, but after that year would relinquish control of the certificate of unlocated balance. Stewart named Gwyn Morrison and Sam Landrum as his agents in case of his death. James Lee named Wm. S. Taylor and Appleton Gay as his agents. In November of 1857 James Lee granted power of attorney to Littlebury Matthews or Joseph C. Cartwright, if C. B. Stewart could get the certificate of unlocated balance back from the person he had placed it with for survey in Western Texas.

On 19 Dec. 1857 James Lee sold the right to the 2,372 acres (less Stewart's 1,000 acres) to Peter J. Willis and brother for $ 800.00. The Willis brothers, in turn, sold it to Charles Jones.

Finally, in the 1860s and 70s, land was located and patented in Montgomery and Stephens Counties.

In the meantime, in 1845, daughter Catherine was born, and in 1847, Narcissa Elizabeth arrived. Montgomery Co. tax rolls show James paid taxes in 1846, 47, 49 and 50. The 1850 census for Montgomery Co. lists James Lee; 43 born in North Carolina, Elenor; 30 born in Louisiana, Mary; 10, Louisa; 8, Katherine; 5 and Narcissa; 3 all born in Texas. That census helps to locate the Lee family within Montgomery Co. They were probably living on the land described in the Land Office File # 1-521. The map showing this parcel of land also shows several of the same families which are listed on adjacent pages of the census; notably the Thomas Miller, John N. Thomas, White and Pevehouse families.

In 1851 another daughter, Rebecca was born and in 1860, Josephine Tressie was added to the family. The 1860 census shows J. Lee; 52, E. Lee; 42, M. A.; 20, L. J.; 18, C.; 14, N. E.; 12, R.; 9, and J.; 1/12. The census was taken on 3 July 1860 and the 1850 census was taken 1 Nov. 1950. So James Lee was probably born between 3 July and 1 Nov. 1807.

1864 was the last time James Lee appears on the Montgomery Co. tax rolls, and so far is the last of the bits and pieces of his recorded life. Ellen Lee filed for a pension, the first installment of which started 1 July 1876, so it is assumed that James was deceased by that time. Ellen was living in Washington Co. in 1877, probably with a married daughter.

So ends the life of James Lee, immigrant, soldier, family man, Texican, Texian, Texan.

Another correction sent in is on a photo from the second NewsLetter. The 12 brothers and sisters photo should be 1956, not 1962.

Don't hesitate to send in corrections. I may miss a fact here and there. Any help is appreciated.

add to the stories, get down to the facts of the story; and let me know what they think. This feedback will provide us with more stories to spread.

I dearly appreciate your willingness to be the Issac Newton Rolan correspondence spokesperson for the Ft Worth & surrounding area. We really need articles, photos, newspaper clippings to fill the Rolan NewsLetter.

Thanks again, Paul Rolan

December 12, 1993

Last September Reunion time, I was unable to make it due to medical conditions. Harvey and Loise McMinn came here and their daughter and daughter and Grandchildren met us at the home of my granddaughter Cynthia Alexander in College Station.

Harvey and Loise left early and came by the Campgrounds. Audry was still there. I plan on sending her a Christmas card. I always considered Audry a dear friend since the old real depression days. I wonder if today's friendships will last as long. We walked to church meetings with Grace Burnes. Opal Herrington was the dearest friend of my teenage days. In fact, without her I wouldn't be me. I wear an opal on honor of her.

Sincerely,
Laura Florence McMinn

Just a short one from Irene Morton: Here are more addresses for the Rolan NewsLetter (13 to be specific). Here are some pictures of Aunt Liza and Uncle Lynn; the rest I don't recognize. Please send them back. I have a dress of Grandma Rolan's. It is not an unusual dress; just a dress. I don't know whether the pictures will help or not.

Love,
Irene

EDITOR: There is no doubt that your pictures will help to enhance the Rolan NewsLetter. Just look. Sorry it took a while to get them back to you. Many thanks for the list of names for the mailing list.

Memorial Day Play Weekend

Mark Your calendar for a eventful weekend at the CampGrounds. This weekend means lots of "fun" times for all. Beau (Charles) Parker has an idea to improve the cook shack by the installation of a hot water heater and electric cook stove. This along with the air conditioning and overall clean up will put the shack in a "presentable" condition for reunion activities.

Along with the water heater brings a dream of hot showers to the CampGrounds. This is added bonus to the extended stay campers. Other plans are to finish the concrete water barrel, and repairs to the bar-b-que pit as symbols of CampGround Landmarks. If time permits, I would also like to go to the Miller Cemetery to clear and clean up the family plot. As I mentioned before, this requires chainsaws, hoes and rakes. Let's have a good turn out and lots of fellowship.
