THE ROLAN FAMILY N·E·W·S·L·E·T·T·E·R

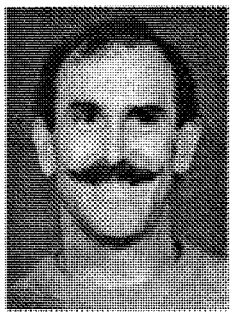

DECEMBER 1993

From the Editor

The challenge I had been worried about for six months is over, hosting the Rolan Family Reunion. Five years ago if someone would have said that I must stand up in front of a bunch of people and talk, I would have probably left the country. I'm an engineer, not a salesman. It's interesting how your priorities and concerns change as you grow. Now I look forward to public speaking; sort of.

From the feedback I received overall, the Reunion went well. We knew the Parker clan in the travel homes were not going to be there; due to Sam Parker's illness. After a few rough starts with the water well electricity and the women's bathroom plumbing, everything was working by Saturday morning. The Reunion contributions were not enough to completely fund three NewsLetter mailings so, if you haven't given please do so (stamps are also accepted). If you do not want a NewsLetter, tell me that also and I'll take your name off the mailing list.

The Minnie Lee Burnes Story

By Judy McLaurin

On the 4th day of January 1885, Andrew Jackson and his young wife Ellen C. Wallen-Rolan started out the new year with the birth of their first child, Minnie Lee Rolan. In the years to follow, Andrew and Ellen's family grew to include twelve more children. They were: Liza, Newton, Annie, Pearl, Rosalyn, Charles, Alvin and Elvin, James, Amos, Ivy, and the baby of the family, Bert. The Rolans are a Scottish decent, The Rolan grandparents were Richard and his wife Tillie Jones-Rolan. The Wallen grandparents were Charles Wallen, who was born in Switzerland, and his wife Kitty Lee-Wallen, who was a third cousin to General Robert E. Lee.

Vernon Elias Burnes:

Vernon was born on the 18th day of September 1881 to Rev. Stephen T. Burnes of Mississippi, and his wife Louise Taller (Talher). Stephen was a Scottish and Irish descent. Stephen's parents were John and Mary Burnes of South Carolina. Stephen and Louise had three more children John, Susie, and Annie. Louise died not long after Annie was born, she was a young woman at the time of her death and left Stephen with four small children. In 1890 Stephen married Emilie Lou Gober of Arkansas, she was born in 1843. Stephen and Emilie had no children of their own. She was a good woman and treated the kids as if they were her own. They loved her and she became their mother.

In Milam county on the 13th day of September 1903, Miss Minnie Lee Rolan and Mr. Vernon Burnes were married. They lived a short time in Bell County according to the census of 1910. Vernon and Minnie had eight children. The oldest was Charlie, born in 1904, then Clinton in 1906, Robert in 1909, Issac in 1913, Lue their only daughter in 1916, Willie in 1919, Emmitt in 1922, and the youngest; Lee in 1926.

ET CETERA

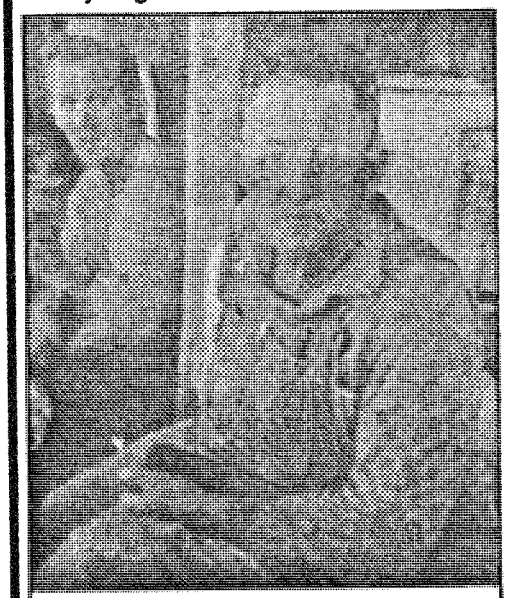

Remember the Photos in the last NewsLetter? Here are the guesses I received:

From: B.B. photo; pg 2. Twins: Pearl Parker and Rosie Beard. Lady sitting: Ellen Rolan. Man standing: Andrew Rolan; the beginning of the 'Dirty Dozen'?

From: B.B. photo; pg. 6. Couple sitting: Effie & Newton Rolan. L to Rt: Leonard Lynn & Liza Garner. Pearl Parker or Rosie Beard. Boy: Minnie's son. Tall Man: Jim Rolan. Man far rt: Lynn's brother; Joe Gardner.

From: M.J. photo; pg2. Twins: Pearl Parker & Annie Butterfield. Baby: Rosalyn Beard. Girl with belt: Minnie Burnes. Girl in plaid skirt: Liza Gardner.

Did you guess the same?

Sam & Charlie Parker

I am sorry to report that Sam Parker passed away on the day of our 1993 Reunion. He will be greatly missed and our thoughts and prayers go out to all who loved him.

1993 Reunion Business Meeting

The meeting was called to order by Paul Rolan.

Bills, expenses and immediate needs to maintain the Campgrounds were discussed. The 220v circuit breaker for the well must be replaced soon; the internal contacts are wearing out. Some briskets were left over but, in just a few minutes they were all sold for $10 each. To pay for the mailing cost of 3 Rolan NewsLetters will be about $135.

Prayers for: Sam Parker and family. Sam is very ill.

Billy Beard is also in poor health.

Deaths: Opal (Butterfield) Herrington, Raymon Rolan

Campground Property: Alcoa is pushing very hard to buy all this land (Alcoa's Lawyer: Emory Camp; 512-446-5822). The only ones that still own property are Sam Parker, Jessie Ray Rolan & Wayne Tolson. This next year will tell the tale for our family heritage property.

Joyce Wyatt volunteered to be in charge of next year's Reunion attendance roster and name tags.

The Tolson boys told their fish story about the ??? pound fish they almost caught in the big stock pond down the hill. There's big fish in that tank.

Recent and near term birthdays were recognized. Patsy Ruth (Rolan) Lehew, Brian Lehew, Josuha Lehew and Audry Johnson have not missed a reunion.

We agreed that three Rolan NewsLetters would occur: before Memorial Day, before Labor Day and November/December time frame. Extra copies of the NewsLetter were available for ones that were torn in the mail or ones that only received one pagers. Articles for the NewsLetter are needed. A suggestion was made to have a series of articles about the "DIRTY DOZEN"; the kids of Andrew and Ellen Wallen-Rolan. This was agreed on and Johnnie Darnell accepted responsibility to start it; documenting the Minnie Burnes story. Thanks, Fletcher. We need 11 more volunteers.

There was a suggestion to bring items to sell to help raise Reunion/Campground funds. This is a great idea; A Reunion garage sale. Bring what you have; old, new, food, pies, pictures, etc.

For the 40th Reunion, let's get a Rockdale newspaper reporter out here to cover the story. We need a volunteer (probably from Rockdale) to make this suggestion happen.

A suggestion to display the flag was brought up. Also the Richard Rolan family crest was brought up. Bring a flag. I will see that the largest is displayed. As for the family crest, If anyone can find a trace of one let me know, we'll hang it.

Dawn Hyde took the floor (dirt floor) to speak. She introduced Gail & Carolyn Blackmon. They are cousins from Andrew Rolan's wife; Ellen Wallen-Rolan's grandparent's (James Lee & Ellen Decker-Lee) limb of the family tree. This year, we have kin present from all four of the Lee daughters. Dawn is heavily involved in genealogy; and some of her findings will be published in future NewsLetters.

Donations from passing the hat totaled to $453.

Appreciations go out to the Vaughn Brune family for an excellent mowing job on the area and to J Roy Stewart Jr. for the excellent tasting Bar-B-Que.

Visit to the Miller Cemetery

Thorough coordination by Dawn Hyde (Annie Butterfield's Granddaughter), this Reunion resulted in a successful visit to the Miller Cemetery by Alfred Rolan (Amos Rolan's son), Jessie; my son, and myself (see directions at the bottom). We always have to wait a while at Alcoa's gate for our guide to arrive. Miller cemetery is just east, almost within rock throwing distance from the gate. The cemetery is so overgrown one would miss it unless you were looking for it. We identified about five gravesites isolated in the far west corner. There may be more covered by the years of leaves covering the dirt.

One site in particular had what appeared to be stones located at the head and foot; no apparent marking. Richard Rolan's children Josephene (d. 1866) and Emzey (d. 1899) are there along with Andrew's son Elvin (d. 1899). One very old marker stands seven feet tall made of concrete; no markings. Alfred used charcoal to get impressions from the gravestones. These were displayed at the Reunion.

Access to these sites presently require agility and balance. A path needs to be cut through the growth (we're talking chainsaws) to provide access for the elder people who might be able to share their knowledge about these sites. Access to Miller Cemetery is through Alcoa's gate located south of their plant adjacent to their coal 'beltline'. Access is available even without prior appointments. Continue past the gate about one mile and take a left over the beltline. Take the immediate left and continue for approx 1/4 mile. Take a right just after the landfill into a large area of trees. The roads are well maintained and very obvious. The road through the trees is smaller but, is still 30–40 feet wide with black pea gravel for topping. The road curves to the right. As you near the mountain they call the landfill, the road ends in a turnaround. The cemetery is on the right, under the trees.

GENEOLOGY/ MAILING LIST

At the Reunion, I received quite a few additions and corrections to the mailing list. There is still about 75 names with incomplete, incorrect or missing address information. If anyone wants a total genealogy listing let me know. A printout of all entries (almost 900) would cost about $1.65 to mail. A computer disk with the dbase file would cost about the same.

The mailing list is a subset of the 900 genealogically-ordered names which only includes descendants over 18, that have a complete address (normally one NewsLetter per address to keep the mailing cost down) and have not had their previous NewsLetter returned (bad address). If the descendant has died, a effort is made to keep the spouse informed with a NewsLetter.

The following NewsLetters were returned. Does anyone know their new address or any info on them?

The Minnie Lee Burnes Story

By Judy McLaurin

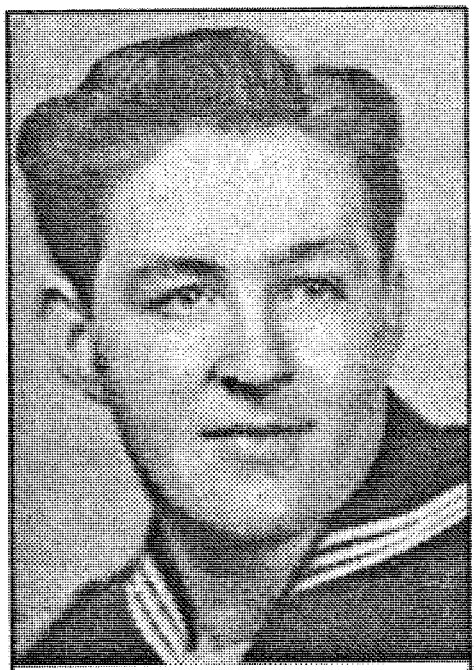

Minnie Lee & Family – July 1966 – Front Row: Clint, Charlie, Minnie, Lue Ellen

(Carol Kirsch with bandage on head – Ray McLaurin running)

Both Vernon and Minnie's parents were born as the civil war was coming to an end, the South was rebuilding and learning a new way of life. It is believed that Minnie's dad Richard was a soldier for the Confederate States, but I haven't received my documents back yet to verify that. This could have been why when Minnie's granddaughter Rose brought her husband-to-be Ben Kirsch, from Indiana, to meet grandma Minnie, she flat told Rose with Ben standing right there, that she'd rather be dead than have a granddaughter of her's married to a Yankee!! That's one we just won't let ole Ben forget.

Being the oldest of thirteen children, Minnie knew how to tend to children, for she helped mother a lot. Grandma Minnie is most remembered for the beautiful quilts she quilted. Minnie was a woman who wasn't afraid to work and pull her share of the load. Gardening was one of the many things she had to do, all their vegetables were grown and then summer came. She canned all she could to be ready for the coming winter months.

Doctors were scarce and sometimes it could be days or even weeks before a doctor could get to your place to make a visit. So people learned to just doctor themselves with home remedies such as: for a baby with colic you could boil an onion in water, then give the juice to the baby; for upset stomachs you could put 5 teaspoons of coal oil or kerosene on a tablespoon of sugar. Of course, all the babies were born at home. A neighbor woman would usually come over and help out. For a pain killer I guess you just had to have faith and pray real hard.

Grandma Minnie had lots of pretty flowers growing in her garden. She was also said to be a very good cook, a real cook not any of this microwave stuff. Like the other women in her days she cooked on a wood stove, they even made their own charcoal in the back yard. Grandma made what she called 'clabber cheese' which was like cottage cheese, she also had an old crock that she used to make sauerkraut. Grandpa and the kids and grandkids in the Burnes house all liked applebutter, and her pickles too. Her eggs came from their chickens and there was always a milk cow on the place.

Minnie Lee Burnes September 1929

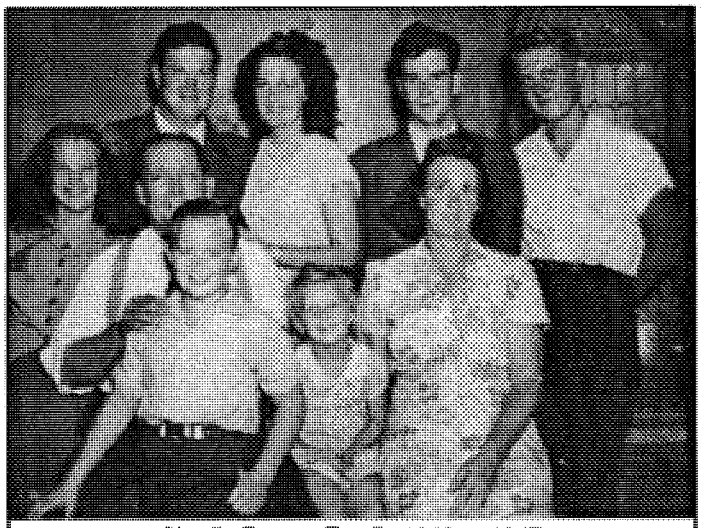

Grandpa Vernon was a happy person who had dark hair and he walked with a limp. It was said that Grandpa had a pretty singing voice and he enjoyed to sing. Some of his grandkids remember him going into town in a horse drawn wagon. Grandpa Vernon was a hard worker and an honest man, who worked to earn everything he had. He was a farmer all his life, and enjoyed it. They raised cows, chickens, goats, and hogs. In the fall the men folk would gather to butcher a hog for winter, they'd boil water to make scraping them easier. Kids being kids would gather around to watch. One time Lee and Rose got some hog guts and laid them out and waited for the chickens to come start eating them.

Of Minnie and Vernon's eight children, only one now survives and that is Emmitt Burnes who lives in Arkansas. They have 32 grandchildren over 50 great grandchildren and many great great grandchildren. Before too many more years they will have great great great grandchildren. Minnie has one granddaughter named after her and she is Minnie Alice Burnes-Ellis. Vernon had several grandsons named after him, Vernon (Sam); Charlie's son, Vernon Wilson; Lue's son, and James Vernon; Emmitt's son. I'm guessing that Lee was named for his mother and her mother's family the Lee's.

Minnie spent her last years living in Houston Texas. On March 30th 1969, Charlie Burnes; Minnie's oldest son died, he and his wife Grace Eakin-Burnes were living in Rozanky Texas at the time of his death. Charlie is buried near his father and grandparents. Minnie lived to be 85 years old. It was on June 20th 1970 that she died while in Center Pavilion Hospital in Houston. Minnie was laid to rest beside her beloved husband in Salty Cemetery. They were married 35 years when he died. Salty now is the resting place for many of Vernon and Minnie's children and grandchildren. Charlie and Grace, Lue and Talvis (Froggie) Wilson, Lee, Clint and Lucy, Willie and Mary, Sam Burnes and Lovie-Marie Burnes-Barnett. There are many descendants from Vernon and Minnie who have that Scottish and Irish blood but don't carry the surnames of Rolan or Burnes such as McLaurins, Wilsons, Boyds, Barnetts, Simmons, Kirschs, Darnells, Stewerts, Ellis, and many more. There also many first names still being passed down like Charlie, Stephen, Wesley, Willie, Robert, Lee and many more.

In Minnie's 85 years she saw a lot of changes in the world, from wood stoves, kerosene lamps, and wagons to radios, electric stoves, cars, electricity in the house, television, airplanes, and even a toilet in the house!

By Judy McLaurin

With the family of Vernon and Minnie continually growing and spreading all over the country I'd like to take time to remind everyone that families can't be bought like a material thing that you can just trade, sell or get rid of if you get tired of it. It's not by chance that you're related, there's a reason for it. Just because people don't have big get together dinners every Sunday afternoon doesn't mean you don't care for one another. If you think of someone, drop them a line, a card or a phone call. Don't wait until they can't hear you say that you care, just take the time to tell them; you're not just family on Labor Day weekend.

You know the old saying: 'You can pick your friends and spouses but, you can't choose your relatives. So what if we have a few nuts on the family tree; it beats it being barren.
